

FEBRUARY 17, 1829.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House to which is committed the bill for the relief of Amos Binney.

Mr. BARTLETT, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, to which was referred the case of William P. Zantzinger, reported the following bill:

A BILL

For the relief of William P. Zantzinger.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department be,
4 and they hereby are, authorized to audit and settle the ac-
5 counts of William P. Zantzinger, and to allow him such sum as
6 may appear equitable and just, in consequence of the losses
7 sustained in the sale and exchange of certain Treasury notes,
8 remitted to him for disbursement on account of the United
9 States, upon satisfactory evidence being exhibited to them
10 that such losses were incurred in transactions growing out of 11 his instructions from the Navy Department, and for the use
12 and benefit of the United States.
